Re: Extension Request
NJSTART Contract #88680
T0640 Fence: Chain Link, Rock Fall, Wooden, Vinyl & Ornamental (Install & Replace)
Response Date: October 13, 2021

Dear Sir or Madam:

The State of New Jersey is considering an extension of the above referenced contract. The extension proposed would be for a period of one (1) year, commencing on November 1, 2021 and expiring on October 31, 2022, or until a new Blanket P.O. is awarded and made fully operation, if earlier. The contemplated extension will be in accordance with the terms and conditions of the current contract. This is not a formal extension notice, but merely a solicitation of your Company's interest in an extension. If the State decides to extend this contract, your Company will receive notice that the contract has been extended.

The Division's core mission is to establish contracts for goods and services thus ensuring that State agencies will be able to meet their objectives. The costs for those goods and services is paid through State funds or funds under the control of the State and therefore the Division is charged with contracting for those goods and services in the most cost effective manner. Accordingly, The State is requesting a price reduction during the extension term. In your response to this letter, please indicate whether your company is willing to reduce the current contract price(s) during the extension term. If yes, please detail the price reduction in your response.

Please be reminded that as a Contractor, your company is under a continuing obligation to report any changes to the information originally reported in, or provided with the Quote. Accordingly, if your company is interested in extending the current contract with the State, please ensure that the information on all of the required forms is up to date:

- Ownership Disclosure
- Disclosure of Investigations and Other Actions Involving the Vendor/Bidder Form
- Disclosure of Investment Activities in Iran
- Subcontractor Utilization
- Source Disclosure
- Chapter 271 Vendor Certification and Political Contribution Disclosure
